STA Practitioner's Level Horary Course 卜卦占星師課程

What is Horary Astrology?

Horary Astrology is a divinatory branch of astrology which specializes in answering questions. An astrological chart is cast for a specific question to give insights about the past, present and future. Questions covered can range from relationship concerns, career matters to queries about investments, lawsuits, or finding missing objects and persons. Examples of typical questions include:

- Will I get the job offer from ABC company?
- What is the future of my relationship?
- What are the prospects of winning the lawsuit?
- Will this property investment bring me good profit?

STA Practitioner's Level Horary Course

Founded by Deborah Houlding, the School of Traditional Astrology (STA) offers practitioner's level accreditation in horary. Since 1996 courses have been delivered at venues as far afield as Australia, Bali, England, France, Hawaii, Ireland, Netherlands, Norway, New Zealand, Scotland, Tasmania and the USA.

The aim of the course is to explore the methodology, theory, history and practical application of horary technique. The course places its emphasis on learning through typical client-scenarios, though consideration is also given to pertinent and informative historical examples.

Although traditional techniques lie at the heart of the study, the course is geared towards the consulting needs of the modern horary astrologer and a wide range of typical (and unusual) horary queries are covered (including missing items/people/pets; relationship and emotional dilemmas; and property, career and financial concerns).

The course offers a practitioner's level of certification, and by the end of the course any astrologer who is already capable of offering a professional astrology service will be ready to begin offering horary to their clients.

什麼是卜卦占星?

卜卦占星(Horary Astrology)是占星學中一門專科，用以針對性的就某一問題起盤，以分析該事情之來龍去脈、發展、以作解答。可占卜的問題範疇相當廣泛，由關係、事業、以至尋找失物、官司、投資、地產買賣等都可以。例如事業問題：「正在申請某公司職位，能否得到，前景如何？」/ 關係問題：「跟現在的男朋友未來發展如何？」/ 官司問題：「如果我向某某提出控告會成功嗎？勝算多少？」/ 樓宇買賣問題：「這層樓值不值得買？未來會帶給我利潤嗎？」

學習卜卦占星，就替占星師的工具箱增加多一個專門用具，以助解答各種類型的問題。

Each lesson allows the opportunity to explore and consolidate what is being taught through a selection of various chart examples, and the course is designed to offer an accumulated knowledge of traditional doctrines in a balanced way, so that theoretical principles enlighten and facilitate (rather than overwhelm) the creative aspect of horary interpretation. Jupiter, a practicing astrologer based in Hong Kong, is active in teaching astrology in Hong Kong, China and Malaysia. She is the co-founder, along with Rod Chang, of the Academy of Astrology, which was founded in 2008 with the aim of promoting Western Astrology to Chinese speakers. Jupiter lectures on a wide range of astrological subjects, from natal to mundane astrology, and also incorporates Chinese astrology, I-Ching and Feng Shui into her own astrological practice. Through the work of the Academy, Jupiter has helped to introduce many international speakers to Asia, where they have shared their astrological insights to local students.

Jupiter began her formal study of astrology with the Faculty of Astrological Studies, and later received certification as a horary practitioner from the STA School of Traditional Astrology in 2013. Enthralled by the philosophical principles and techniques of classical astrology, she continues her in-depth study of horary with the STA's Master's Level Course for horary tutors.

With an aim to bring horary astrology to Chinese-speaking communities, Jupiter has been working on the translation of the STA course material since 2014 and will offer the first Practitioner's Level Horary Course to be delivered in Chinese. Jupiter will also be representing the STA at the 2016 Annual Conference of the Astrological Association of Great Britain.
